HAROLD H. PREEMAN

CASKET OF DEAD SERVICE MAN BANKED WITH BEAUTIFUL FLORAL TRIBUTES

With young men who had been his comrades in arms and shared the horrors and dangers of the great war in attendance, and with other friends of his boyhood and youth who had loved him sharing the deeper grief of those who were nearer and dearer, final services over the body of Harold Preeman were held Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the Little Church of the Flowers in Forest Lawn Memorial Park. Banked around the casket on every side were floral tributes, wonderful in their beauty and variety, offering their mute testimony to his place in the hearts of the community and its sympathy for the bereaved family.

Rev. W. E. Edmonds conducted the service which was very simple, the music being limited to an organ rendition of Chopin funeral march. Following the comforting scripture reading the pastor, who had received Harold Preeman into his church on confession of faith eight years ago, made a brief address on the mysteries of life and death and the fine qualities of the boy whose patriotism had cost him so dearly. He said in part:

"We are not gathered here this afternoon to speak any word of cheap eulogy of this dear young man. We are here because of our sympathy for these, our dear friends. Our presence is an indication that we would pay honor to the departed and his memory. We do not go very far in life before we realize we are face to face with un-

HOW THE CLASSIFIED AD WORKS

Mrs. S. W. Pettit of 129 South Kenwood desired to sell her home, so she put a 30-cent classified ad in the Evening News Saturday. That evening she sold the place as a direct result of the ad and on Sunday morning another party came to buy it. Mrs. Pettit's mother, Mrs. Margaret Neil, of 315 Ivy, wanted to sell her place, so this party was directed over there and soon concluded a bargain with Mrs. Neil. So a 30c ad in the Evening News sold two properties.

MILLERS PLEASED TO BE BACK IN GLENDALE

Melvin Miller and wife, who recently drove through from Denver to Glendale in nine days, are delighted to again be residents here. They spent a winter here five years ago, living then at 416 Ivy and determined when they left for the East in the spring to come back to Glendale to live, sometime. So when the way was opened by the offer of employment for Mr. Miller from Mr. Haines, it was eagerly accepted, and the move was made. The Millers expect to buy a home here eventually.

FROM TEXAS OIL FIELD

J. M. BLANKENSHIP BUYS RESIDENCE AND BUSINESS LOT IN GLENDALE

J. M. Blankenship has bought the old Kranz place at 1317 North Brand Boulevard and moved in with his wife and two children one day last week. The family came here from Wichita Falls, Texas, the center of the greatest oil field in the United States, Mr. Blankenship says. He practiced law there for ten years and three years ago he invested some of his savings in taking oil leases on 3700 acres of land in the vicinity of Wichita Falls. He has sold the leases on 3000 acres, he says, which netted him a tidy fortune. The wells in that section are from 1200 to 1800 feet deep and flow from 500 to 2000 barrels a day, on the average. As oil now brings $3.50 a barrel and there are hundreds of wells around there, the neat sum of four million dollars is paid to producers every four days. The recent report made by the officers of the Federal Reserve Bank of Wichita Falls showed over forty million dollars on deposit in the six banks doing business there. The city has doubled its population in the past year, and now numbers fully 50,000, he says.

Mr. Blankenship has shown his faith in Glendale by investing in a business lot as well as a residence, though a resident of the city less than a week. He bought of A. G. Spohr the 25-foot front lot adjoining the Chaffee building on the south and will erect a one-story brick business house on it as soon as his papers come through escrow.

CHURCH BURGLARIZED

HOLY FAMILY CATHOLIC CHURCH ENTERED AND SACRAMENTAL WINE STOLEN

The utter lack of reverence in the present generation and respect for sacred things has been brought home to Father James O'Neill and the members of his parish by a burglary at the Holy Family Catholic Church which was broken into Monday night and all the sacramental wine taken. The church is permitted to have a supply sufficient to last three months, and it is granted under the most rigid restrictions. For each consignment an official affidavit must be signed by Father O'Neill covering each bottle, and each bottle bears a label stating exactly what it is and the fact that any person using it as a beverage will be liable to a fine of $1000. It is a sour wine resembling vinegar, not intended to tempt the appetite and there are only two places on the Pacific Coast where it can be obtained. The supply used here came from the monastery at Los Gatos, near San Jose, and was manufactured by the monks there from grapes grown in the monastery vineyards for this special purpose.

Efforts will be made to trace the offenders and if found they will be liable to the full penalties of the law. The case affords an opportunity for some fine detective work.

EVENING NEWS EDITOR GREETS OLD FRIENDS

G. A. Walker of Polo, Ill., an old friend and customer of the proprietor of the Evening News when he was engaged in the newspaper business in Polo, was a caller at the Evening News office yesterday, accompanied by D. A. Pollock of Fairmount, Neb., who moved to that city from Polo several years ago. The two men, who were friends and neighbors when both lived on farms adjoining the Illinois city, came to California, accompanied by their wives, last December, stopping first at San Diego. A month ago they came up to Pasadena, whence they will go in a few days to Long Beach. After a few weeks spent there they will return to their homes. They are very much delighted with their stay in Southern California. Both men are retired farmers and have large families in the home states, which tie them to those localities. Were it otherwise both would locate in California, they say.

JOHN STROTHER BACK FROM OKLA. WITH GUEST

John Strother of 326 East Chestnut, who runs the "speed truck," has just returned from a few weeks' visit in Kansas City and the old home, Alvah, Okla. His brother-in-law, J. T. Fash, came with him to look at Glendale, which Mr. Strother declared would convince him that it is the only place in which to live. Mr. Fash is a farmer and stock-raiser and has prospered during the past years. He is greatly enjoying his visit, though he has been here but two days, and is ready to concede that Mr. Strother has not overstated its many attractions.

THE NEW BUILDING AT 107 W. HARVARD

The new garage and service station which Louis Richbart is having erected between the rear end of the Dodge Agency building and the side of the Exide building is to be 60 feet wide and 75 feet deep. The two side and the rear walls are already built. The front wall facing is to be of ruffled brick. The foundations and floor will be of concrete and there will be a composition roof with metal and wire glass skylights.

CALIFORNIA FEVER

GUESTS OF MR. LE BLANC HAVE SEVERE ATTACK AND WILL PROBABLY RETURN

Mr. and Mrs. Le Blanc of 1119 South Glendale Avenue have received a letter from the nephew and niece, Mr. and Mrs. George C. Lawrence, who visited them recently and who were called home to Anamosa, Iowa, by the illness of their son. They write of just emerging from the second blizzard since their return and that their short visit here had given them a severe attack of California fever. While it would be a great sacrifice for Mr. Lawrence to leave a well-established law practice, he is seriously contemplating moving to our balmy climate and making Glendale his home.

TREATY RATIFICATION COMING TO HEAD

REPUBLICAN LEADERS TO ASK FOR VOTE THURSDAY; DEFEAT MAY BRING RECONSIDERATION

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, March 16.—Republican leaders in the Senate today decided to ask for an agreement to vote on treaty ratification on Thursday. They also decided to call up the Knox resolution declaring peace if the treaty fails. They have more than enough votes to pass it, they said today. There was a possibility, it was learned, that if the treaty is rejected some democratic senators may move for reconsideration and may then vote to ratify. Some democrats who want to ratify feel that they must stand by President Wilson as long as it is possible, but they say if they vote against the Lodge reservation and the treaty fails, they will then feel they have fulfilled all party obligations and vote to ratify.

The Senate today resumed discussion of Senator Owen's reservation on Egypt.

POSSIBLE GERMAN COMPROMISE

VON KAPP SAID TO HAVE SUBMITTED PROPOSAL TO RESIGN TO EBERT GOVERNMENT

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

LONDON, March 16.—Dr. Wolfgang Von Kapp, leader of the new German revolution, has offered to resign as chancellor, thus opening the way for negotiations with the Ebert government, according to a correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph. General Maercker, representing the Kapp government, was reported to be en route to Stuttgart in an airplane bearing proposals for a compromise. It was believed he also carried Kapp's offer to resign. Kapp himself was said to have announced Maercker's departure.

The Foreign Office stated today that the British Embassy in Berlin has private reports of an agreement between Kapp and Ebert. The Foreign Office understood that the embassy had no confirmation of such an agreement and that it was based on a report published by the "Allgeimeine Zeitung."

CIVIL STRIFE IN BERLIN

FIFTEEN KILLED IN CLASHES BETWEEN WORKERS AND REVOLUTIONISTS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

BERLIN, March 16.—Clashes have taken place between revolutionists and workers in various parts of Berlin particularly in Schoenberg and Wilmersdorf. Fifteen have been killed and many wounded.

FIGHTING IN DRESDEN

FIFTY PERSONS KILLED IN CONFLICT BETWEEN TROOPS AND REVOLUTIONISTS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

PARIS, March 16.—Fifty persons have been killed and two hundred wounded in fighting communists and reichwehr troops at Dresden, according to a Berlin dispatch quoting the "Dresden Vossiche Zeitung." The communists, the dispatch said, seized the telegraph building and casualties followed when the reichwehr attempted to recapture it.

U. S. CREDIT TO GERMANY

REPRESENTATIVE SMITH INTRODUCES BILL TO EXTEND HUGE LOAN TO GERMANY

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, March 16.—A bill proposing that the United States extend a credit of one trillion dollars to Germany, was introduced in the House today by Representative Thomas D. Smith, a New York democrat.

EBERT GOVERNMENT STANDS PAT

STUTTGART DISPATCHES DECLARE IT HAS DECIDED TO CEASE ALL COMMUNICATION WITH INSURGENTS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

STUTTGART, March 16.—The Ebert government has decided to cease all communication with the revolutionary government in Berlin.

This course was decided by the unanimous vote of the cabinet. It was further decided to punish all insurgents with maximum severity.

The cabinet took this action despite the fact that a report had been received declaring that General Maercker was en route from Berlin with revolutionist proposals for a compromise.

INTERNAL REVENUE ROBBERY

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

SEATTLE, March 16.—Two unmasked men held up R. E. Stafford, cashier in the Internal Revenue Collector's office in the Federal building at 1 a. m. today, forced him to open the safe, and escaped with $20,000 in currency.

EASTERN CONDITIONS

WARREN ROBERTS TELLS OF BRISK TRADE AND GOOD OLD WINTER WEATHER

Warren Roberts of East Elk Avenue who recently returned from a trip to Des Moines, Iowa, reports business in the Middle West very brisk although, because of weather conditions, no building is in progress. He went by way of El Paso and returned via Denver, where he had a nice visit with an uncle who gave him a sightseeing tour of the city. He had intended to come back by way of the Rio Grande, but was unable to get reservations. He had reason to rejoice over the failure of his plans because the train he would have taken was one of those snowbound, to which food was carried by runners on snow shoes. He had a good taste of what winter is like, as the mercury fell below zero during his stay in Des Moines. On reaching Los Angeles he was met at the train by Mr. and Mrs. E. U. Emery and Mrs. Roberts, the party having dinner at the Marcelle as guests of the Emerys. One of the pleasures of his stay in Des Moines was a visit to Blake University from which Mrs. Roberts was graduated in music, and a visit to his own alumnus, Highland Park College, also located at Des Moines.

PUTNAMS GREATLY IMPROVE PROPERTY RECENTLY PURCHASED

Vernon Putnam and wife, who sold their home in Hollywood a few months ago and bought the property at 208 West Elk Avenue, formerly owned by the late S. L. Borthick, are very much pleased with the move to Glendale. They have made many changes to both house and grounds, putting in hardwood floors upstairs and painting the house inside and out. The garage was turned around facing the north and moved to the southeast corner of the lot and a solid concrete driveway built from the street to the garage. A back porch was added to the house and a new division fence and trellises for roses and vines built. It looks like a brand-new place in every particular now.

SUDDEN DEATH OF J. C. OLIPHANT

The body of Joe Clifford Oliphant who dropped dead yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock at his home, 2527 Bellevue Terrace, Los Angeles, is at the Pulliam & Kiefer Undertaking establishment awaiting interment in Forest Lawn Cemetery. He was related to the family of Geo. Melford, formerly a motion picture director in Glendale. He was 28 years old, single, and of English parentage, though born in New York City. Funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon.

TRAFFIC LAW VIOLATIONS INCREASE

Traffic law violations are becoming more and more prevalent, according to the police authorities. There were nearly 100 arrests for this cause last week and 40 offenders will face Judge Lowe tomorrow on charges of speeding, reckless driving, leaving their cutouts open and having head or tail lights out. It seems to be not generally known that every one who drives any kind of a motor vehicle must have either an operator's or chauffeur's license.

AUDETS MOVE INTO REMODELED HOUSE

J. E. Audet and family have moved into the house they built over, at 449 Vine Street. Two rooms were built to the old house, which had been moved up toward the front of the lot, and they now have a very comfortable four-room residence.

FOR BRIDE-ELECT

MISS GLAYDS JUSTEMA GUEST OF HONOR AT MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER

Miss Gladys Justema, whose marriage to Dwight W. Stephenson will take place the latter part of April, was the guest of honor Friday at a prettily appointed miscellaneous shower given by Miss Wilma Deacon of Los Angeles. Great baskets of beautiful spring flowers were used in decorating the living and dining rooms. Music and dancing, as well as several clever games for which prizes were given, were enjoyed by the guests. A dainty buffet supper was served late in the evening. Guests were all from Los Angeles.

HAINES-OCHENRIDER

YOUNG COUPLE FROM RIVERSIDE MARRIED AT LUTHERAN CHURCH

After the morning service last Sunday there was a quiet wedding in the Lutheran church, performed by the pastor, Rev. Mottern. The wedding party was from Riverside and the bride and her sister are very close friends of the families of Rev. Mottern and Geo. F. Daugherty. To the strains of the wedding march from Lohengrin, played by Miss Elizabeth Mottern, the wedding party slowly marched down the aisle and took their places before the officiating minister. The groom, Sergeant Walter Haines, was supported by a comrade, Sergeant Dr. Hass of the Citrus Experimental Station, as best man, and the bride, Miss Carrie A. Ochenrider, was accompanied by her sister as maid of honor. The ring service was used. After the knot was tied all went to the home of the pastor, where Mrs. Mottern and Mrs. Daugherty had prepared a bountiful wedding dinner. The rooms and the table were beautifully decorated with sweet peas and freesias tastefully arranged.

Mr. and Mrs. Haines left on an evening train for Portland, Oregon, where a few weeks will be spent with numerous friends. After six weeks they will return to Riverside, where Sergeant Haines has a good position.

MORE ACTIVITY IN FOOTHILLS

W. E. Evans and J. G. Huntley have enlarged their Kenneth Heights subdivision by adding another ten-acre tract on the south side of Kenneth Road, opposite the original tract. Highland Avenue will be opened through this tract from Kenneth Road to Sixth Street. All of the Kenneth Road frontage has been sold. Lucias A. Phillips of Los Angeles has taken three lots comprising about two acres, on which they will soon erect a handsome residence. Further sales have been made to Mrs. M. Ewell Smith, three lots; Mrs. Seymour B. Smith, one lot.

RICKER WILL BUILD

Prof. Chas. A. Ricker, who is connected with the Pacific Mutual Life Insurance Company and now lives in Los Angeles, has bought a very sightly lot on Opechee Way in Selvas de Verdugo and has contracted with the Bentley-Schoeneman Company to build a beautiful 8-room bungalow occupying a ground space of 48 feet frontage by 34 ft. deep. It will be occupied by Prof. Ricker and wife when completed. They have lived in Los Angeles for five years past and are anxious to settle down in the beautiful spot they have chosen, which seems ideal to them in every way. Prof. Ricker was a school teacher in New York City for many years, hence his title. He came out to California intending to rest, but soon found himself wearying of idleness, so he took up his present work.

CLUB HOUSE SITE

MRS. E. H. WILLISFORD FAVORS ORANGE AND HARVARD ST. PROPOSITION

Mrs. E. H. Willisford states that she is very enthusiastically interested in the last site offered the Tuesday Afternoon Club at the corner of Orange and Harvard streets which she thinks more nearly fulfills all the requirements of such a site than any other that has been offered. First and foremost, she says, it is sufficiently near the business center to be in demand as a rental hall for entertainments, which might not be the case were it located further away in a residence section. Also, she points out, it is easily accessible from present carlines, including the Eagle Rock and Montrose cars, as well as the main lines on Brand and Broadway, and should the Broadway line be extended west, as anticipat-

H. S. WEBB MOVES TO GLENDALE

H. S. Webb of H. S. Webb & Co. has purchased the property on the corner of California and Louise St. for $7000 and has spent several hundred more in re-decorating and remodeling it to his taste. The house is now being furnished at a cost of $3000 and Mr. Webb, who has been living in Hollywood, expects to become a resident of Glendale about the first of April. Mr. Webb's sister, Mrs. Sawyer, also of Hollywood, has purchased the property at 617 North Louise, and expects to occupy it with her two children about the same time.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Roberts were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Tower.

Attorney Dwight Stephenson has leased the house at 315 West Wilson Avenue and will take possession some time in May.

With the month of March just half gone at noon today, the building permits already totaled over $106,000.

Warren May, 1138 East California Avenue, reports the theft of his bicycle from the curb in front of the library last evening after dark.

A. H. Fuelscher and family of 509 East Harvard Street have moved into the house at the corner of Broadway and Orange Streets.

Ed K. Daniels and wife of 207 West Lomita Avenue have a new boy baby, born this morning. Both mother and child are doing well.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Martin of El Segundo, who formerly lived in Glendale, were visitors in the city at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harden, on Sunday.

Emery Warner of 724 East Acacia is adding to his poultry equipment a $300 hen house, for which he took out a building permit this morning.

Joe Pagliuso, who is having erected the building at 139 South Brand which is to house the Evening News, took out a permit this morning through his contractor, G. L. Murdock, for a four-room residence at 339 Geneva Street, to cost $1500.

Mrs. Ezekiel Palmer of La Crescenta died yesterday noon at her home of tuberculosis. She was 43 years of age. The body is at Pulliam & Kiefer's and the funeral will be held tomorrow, 3 p. m. Deceased left no children; her husband survives her.

Mrs. Norma Rockhold Robbins, a former resident of Glendale at 317 East Lomita Street, on returning from a three years' sojourn in New York has definitely decided to remain in California and has been warmly welcomed in musical circles, where she has always been a great favorite. She and Mr. Robbins are now in Los Angeles at 820 South Alvarado Street.

A debate of considerable interest is to take place next week at Loyola College at Pico Heights when students will consider the pros and cons of the question: "Should immigration to the United States be restricted for two years?" Judge Taft and Judge McCormick will act as judges, and the medal which is to reward the winner is being given by Father James O'Neill of this city.

Members of the First Methodist Church choir were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Kuehny of 1452 East California Avenue last Thursday evening with a wienie bake. About forty were present. Following the supper a pleasant social and musical evening was enjoyed. Their host and hostess and two daughters, Gretchen and Phyllis, made a week-end trip to Uplands.

Mrs. Oscar Stees of 632½ East Broadway, had the pleasure of entertaining as Sunday guests Mrs. Della Southworth of Los Angeles, and William Marshall of Chicago, old friends whom she was glad to welcome to her home. It is Mr. Marshall's first visit to Southern California and he is very much delighted with it and says he will come again next year. He will be here for two or three weeks.

RAINFALL .07 OF AN INCH

The rain which started in about the middle of the forenoon amounted to .07 of an inch up to noon and prospects are for considerable more.

INDORSES SEVERAL PROJECTS AND COMMENDS NIGHT SCHOOL TEACHERS

The regular meeting of the Glendale Federation of Parent-Teacher Associations was held Monday, March 15th, at 2:15 p. m., in the auditorium of the Intermediate School, with Mrs. A. A. Barton in the chair.

The president reported that she had attended all state and district board meetings held during the month. Reports of officers and chairmen of departmental work were given which indicated that there had been no lessening of activity during the influenza ban.

It was voted that a letter be sent to Mr. and Mrs. Richardson D. White expressing the deep sympathy of the Federation in their bereavement. It was also voted that a letter of condolence be sent to Mrs. Mary Ogden Ryan on the death of her father.

BEAUTIFUL PACOIMA

NATURE REPAIRS FIRE DAMAGE; HILLS GREEN AND WILD FLOWERS ABUNDANT

Mrs. Chauncey Lake of West Cypress Avenue reports very encouraging conditions in Pacoima Canyon, where she and Mr. Lake have holdings and where he operates an auto park during the summer. The storms have been so gentle and infrequent this winter that there has been no bad washing, vegetation has sprung up and the hills are green again. It was only on the hillsides that timber was destroyed, the trees in the creek bottoms being intact. Flood Control employes are now at work on the dam projected before the fire and will probably be employed for several months to come. The wild flowers, Mrs. Lake says, are unusually beautiful. Of course it will take years to replace the burned woodland, but otherwise the canyon has lost little in attractiveness. Lease holders are rebuilding on their sites and many new lots have been taken and are being improved. The Bullseye Motion Picture Company is using the canyon as a location and doing considerable picture making there.

FRIEND OF GLENDALE PASTORS KILLED BY AUTO

Rev. Edwin C. Little, pastor of the United Presbyterian Church, Ninth and Figueroa, who was struck down at Sixth and Hill last evening by an auto and fatally injured, was well known to Rev. Edmonds and Rev. Cole of Glendale, who became much attached to him while working in the Inter-Church World Movement. The latter had known him previously when he was a pastor in Tarkio, Mo., and bears testimony to his beautiful Christian life and character. He leaves a widow, three grown daughters and one son.

Dr. I. H. Durfee and wife spent Sunday in Long Beach with an old college friend visiting relatives there and attended the meeting of the largest Sunday school class of men west of the Mississippi River, that at the First Christian Church, which is called "Taubman's Bible Class." There were 750 in attendance Sunday.

W. J. Booth of Ann Arbor, Mich., now wintering in Pasadena, spent Thursday afternoon with the Pearsons on Harvard Street and gave them a promised talk on Jerusalem. His descriptions of familiar Bible scenes were graphic. His pleasant voice in clear, simple language relating incidents that occurred during his sojourn in Jerusalem was very enjoyable. The talk was most instructive and thoroughly appreciated by those who were present.

The Glad Girl

"Pollyanna," beloved by all who have read Eleanor Porter's charming story by that name, is in Glendale.

"Pollyanna, as portrayed by Mary Pickford, is one of the sweetest pictures I have ever seen," said a well known Glendale woman the other day. "No one can see this picture and not be better and happier for it. I am going to see it again."

Pollyanna's cheery spirit of optimism is contagious. It is a picture for the whole family. Humor and pathos are so finely blended that the result is altogether charming. Pollyanna is in a class by herself. There is no other girl just like her. There is no film like this.

Were it not for Miss Pickford's wonderful work in this picture, every one in Glendale would want to see it anyway for the famous little star is supported by

CHURCH SURVEY

Tomorrow, commencing at 9:30 a. m. and continuing until about 4 p. m., 70 workers will take a church survey of Glendale. The work is under the supervision of Rev. C. A. Cole, who laid out the 55 districts into which the city was divided to expedite the work. All the Protestant churches of Glendale are furnishing workers for the task, which is a part of the work planned by the Inter-Church World Movement and is being undertaken in all parts of the world where there are Christian churches.

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Lambie of 460 West Doran Street have had the common experience of thousands of loyal Californians. They first came to Southern California from Pittsburg and decided they didn't like it so returned to their Eastern home; but the virus of the Golden State's charm was in their blood and their hearts kept turning back to the land they had left. They returned, living for a time in Highland Park, but coming to Glendale about a year ago. They are perfectly contented now, the more so because Mrs. Lambie's parents are with them, and it is safe to say that Pittsburg will know them no more.

Williams-Wear Dresses

These frocks were designed and made in Glendale to meet the demand for wash frocks for street wear of distinctive style and good quality.

They are fashioned from the best imported and domestic ginghams that we can purchase; they are button-trimmed and have sheer white collars and cuffs, hemstitched and edged with lace.

They are not factory made, but are turned out of a work-room where special stress is laid on good work and an individual touch for each frock rather than on the number of garments completed in a day.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S WEEK

SPECIAL MEETINGS ARE BEING HELD IN SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTIST CHURCH

This is young people's week among the Seventh-day Adventists, during which time special meetings are being held at the church, corner of California and Isabel. Saturday, two meetings were held, one in the forenoon, the other in the afternoon.

Elder C. S. Prout, Pacific Union Conference secretary of young people's work, gave the address at the first session. He said the reason so many young people drift out into the world was because there was not the proper understanding between them and the parents. The home life must be conducive to right thinking and living if the precepts of parents are put into practice by the children. The church also is under obligations to the young within its radius. Lack of tact, interest and love on the part of church members will have an adverse reaction upon the sensitive minds and hearts of the young people.

Elder Adams, assisted by Elders C. S. Prout and Meade MacGuire conducted the afternoon session. which was in the nature of a parents' council.

The need of strict adherence to right principles bp parents was advocated as the only means of inculcating these virtues in their offspring and obtaining proper respect and obedience.

Children are keen observers and all that is said and done by their elders gradually forms a part of their characters. Due to stress of work and nervous haste the tone of voice of a parent often takes on a sharp edge which wounds the delicate sensibilities of a child. No parent need hesitate to confess his fault and ask the child's forgiveness; instead of lowering himself in the eyes of his offspring, he will gain the love and confidence of the child.

Several mothers and fathers in the audience gave helpful suggestions. The importance of family worship was urged as the foundation of Christian home life. Not only will this practice hold the family together in Christian love, but the memory of family prayers will linger long in the hearts of grown-up children.

Each afternoon at 3 o'clock those in charge of this special effort will meet parents or others interested in the welfare of youth, to give council and spiritual help. The homes will be visited and parents and children will have the opportunity of council and prayer with the workers in charge.

Each evening at 7:30 meetings will be held in the church with sessions in different rooms for old and young. The young people employed at the Sanitarium and at Dr. Harrower's laboratory, as well as the students in the Adventist graded school, will have special exercises suited to their needs.

The young people have been invited to go to the workers in charge and ask for spiritual help and advice and many have availed themselves of the opportunity.

The Lord wants his people saved by families. If parents expect to take their children to heaven with them, they must keep close to them here.

explainable mysteries. The whole of life is a mystery, the very existence of this world is shrouded in mystery and when for us the end comes, the mystery deepens. It is no new experience that we face this afternoon. It is the way that all must pass. Sooner or later the great change must come in every individual life. Sooner or later the voice you hear will be stilled in death and another voice will be heard; for it is appointed once for every man to die. We are living in a world of change and it behooves us to remember that the lives we live are uncertain lives. It is not so much what others may say of us when we are gone but the lives we live from day to day that count.

"I think of Harold Preeman as a Christian patriot, as a young man who gave his life for the principles for which this nation went into the war. As they come back and tell us of what they went through and the terrible conditions of war the wonder is that more of those young men have not fallen as a result of that awful conflict. We think of what men suffered and wonder if the message can ever be told and if there can ever be an adequate reward. But I believe God has ordered these things and I believe his great purpose has been carried out.

"There are those here who were associated with this young man in the service of his country and who knew him there even better than we did here. It was my privilege to receive Harold Preeman into the Presbyterian Church eight years ago on confession of faith I am sure that his faith stood him in good stead. When once he had placed his faith he was able to keep his life safe in the Lord Jesus Christ; for nothing can separate us from Jesus Christ. This young man as a Christian patriot has received his crown and reward. When all is said and done, it is his faith in Jesus Christ which is the measure of a man, the measure of his life; and faith in Him leads us up and into service for Him."

Dr. Edmonds then read the following resolution adopted by Glendale Post No. 127 of the American Legion:

March 15, 1920.

To Mr. and Mrs. R. D. White:

At a regular meeting of the American Legion, Glendale Post No. 127, the following preamble and resolution was adopted:

Whereas, It has pleased the Great Commander of the Universe to remove from our midst our late comrade, Harold H. Preeman, and

Whereas, In view of the loss we have sustained by the decease of our friend and associate and of the still heavier loss sustained by those who were nearer and dearer to him; therefore, be it

Resolved, That it is but a just tribute to the memory of the departed to say in regretting his removal from our midst, we mourn for one who was a worthy citizen, a valiant soldier, and a young man of sterling character.

Resolved, That we sincerely condole with the family of the deceased on the dispensation with which it has pleased the Great Commander to afflict them and we commend them for consolation to Him who orders all things for the best and whose chastisements are meant in mercy.

Resolved, That this heartfelt testimony of our sympathy and our sorrow for our departed friend be spread upon the minutes of our meeting.

In sincere sympathy,
American Legion, Glendale Post No. 127,
James F. McBryde,
Secretary.

ed, it would also be convenient for passengers coming from that direction.

Another point which Mrs. Willisford stresses is the fact that the proposed site is in a business section—i. e., an apartment house district, in which there are no restrictions. These are a serious handicap when there is a proposition to build any kind of a public edifice in a residence district, she declares, because if there is a single objector the whole project is knocked out. The serious consideration of such a site would mean a canvass to secure the approval of every property owner of the district. She therefore wishes to go on record as being warmly interested in the last proposition.

man of finance, read a letter from Mrs. Nanno Woods offering the services of her dramatic school, gratis, for a benefit entertainment for the Federation. This offer was accepted by vote with the understanding that the money realized therefrom should be used for the increase of the scholarship fund.

The Federation also voted a $25 subscription to the swimming pool with a declaration of the hearty cooperation of the organization in the project. It was stated that the membership in the Federation now totals 1452.

The Federation also instructed its secretary to send a letter of appreciation to teachers who have so generously offered their services for night school work in Glendale. The meeting then adjourned.
